Tour Summary

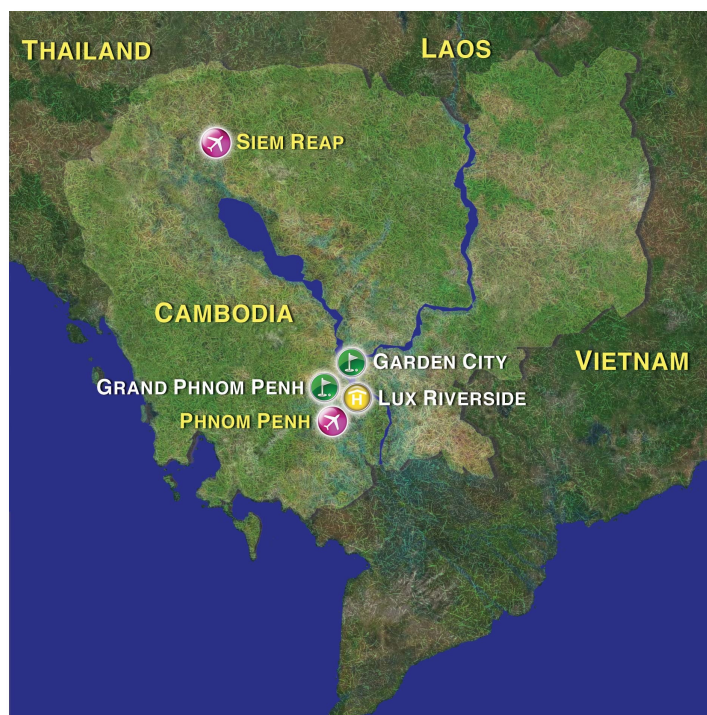

Cambodia has certainly had a tumultuous history, but decades later it is rebuilding its social & economic sustainability. The country now enjoys a healthy tourism influx that is steadily growing each year. The Cambodian people have such a gentle & friendly nature, so it's no surprise to learn that over 90% of the population worship Buddhism. Each year tourists flock to Cambodia to see the ancient remnants of the Khmer Empire.

This brief Phnom Penh package includes 2 rounds of golf at championship golf courses - Garden City and Jack Nicklaus' Grand Phnom Penh. The Lux Riverside Hotel will serve as your base for 3 nights, which is ideally located on the riverfront near the delta of the Mekong & Tonle Sap Rivers. Phnom Penh's CBD is also nearby and a busy hub with many shops, restaurants and the popular Central Market. The package also includes a tour to the Royal Palace, Silver Pagoda and the very moving Toul Sleng Genocide Museum.
